JACKSON, KY.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION

D. B. Redwine, of Breathitt, for Circuit Judge and T. C. Johnson, of Lee, for Commonwealth's Attorney.

Pursuant to call of the Democratic Executive Committee of the 23d Judicial District of Kentucky, the Democratic delegates of said District met in Convention at Campton, Kentucky, Tuesday the 24th day of August, 1909, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

The convention was called to order by the District Chairman, F. P. Crawford, who stated the object of the meeting. Thereupon Dr. J. R. Carroll, of Campton, Ky., was duly elected temporary chairman, and Sheldon Back, of Beattyville, temporary secretary and J. Wise Hagins, of Jackson, assistant secretary.

The Chairman then appointed as committee on credentials, Jas. H. Little, J. B. White, F. A. Lyon, Sr., H. N. Horton, A. B. Cox and Wm. Goocoy.

On permanent organization: G. W. Fleenor, D. A. Wallace, J. F. Sutton, G. B. Stamper, Hugh Riddell and F. A. Lyon, Jr.

On resolutions: O. H. Pollard, Wm. Snowden, J. K. Roberts, G. B. Stamper, R. R. Friend and W. W. McGuire. The committee on credentials then made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"We, your committee on credentials, find that the credentials of each county are regular; that there is no contest, and recommend that the delegates named in the credentials from each county be the accredited delegates to this convention and that the various counties be entitled to the following votes: Breathitt, 8; Estill, 5; Lee, 3; Wolfe, 7. (Signed) J. B. White, A. B. Cox, J. H. Little, H. N. Horton, F. A. Lyon, Sr."

The committee on credentials of the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

"Your committee on permanent organization would respectfully recommend that the temporary organization be made permanent. (Signed) Hugh Riddell, Chairman. Thereupon the committee on resolutions reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

"The committee on resolutions submit the following report:

Resolved, 1st, That we approve the time and place for holding this convention.

2nd, We renew our allegiance to the time honored principles of the Democratic party, as announced by the immortal champion of freedom, Thomas Jefferson, and reaffirmed by the last National Democratic platform.

3d, We pledge the nominees of this convention our hearty indorsement and unqualified support and we call upon all good citizens irrespective of party affiliations, past and present, who favor the enforcement of the law and desire a speedy and an intelligent and equitable decision of causes to rally around the standard here erected.

4th, That we unqualifiedly pledge the nominees of this convention to the honest, faithful and fair execution of the law, without favor, affection or political preference, and without desire to further their individual interests, and particularly to the enforcement of the law against the unlawful sale of spirituous liquors that is destructive to the best manhood of the country and ruinous to the youth of the land."

(Signed) W. W. McGuire, Chairman, R. R. Friend, O. H. Pollard, J. K. Roberts, G. B. Stamper, W. M. Snowden.

Thereupon the Hon. D. B. Redwine, of Jackson, Ky., was nominated by acclamation the Democratic Candidate for Judge of the 23d Judicial District, to be voted for at the regular November election, 1909, and, thereupon, the Hon. T. C. Johnson, of Tallaga, Ky., was nominated by acclamation as the Democratic Candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney for said District to be voted for at the said election.

Thereupon the following resolution was unanimously adopted by the Convention: Resolved that the game cock, in the act of crowing, shall be the device under which the names of the nominees of this Convention shall be placed in the regular November Election 1909.

Thereupon the convention adjourned.

Atoll

Last week Dr. Swango, of Jackson was here to see Mrs. Minerva Jett who is very low with Typhoid fever.

C. M. Crawford and wife attended the fair at Lexington last week. Master Jack and Miss Margerite Hogz, of Booneville, are visiting Miss May Day this week.

Last week there was a boy born to the wife of Curtis Jett a boy, to the wife of Sam Jett a boy, and to the wife of Jeff Eversole a girl.

The following live stock has been shipped from Atoll the last week:

Cornor & Bundy 1 car of cattle, Horton & White 3 cars of cattle, Crawford Bros. 1 car of sheep, Clay Crawford sold 1 car of hogs to Harvey Hest of Winchester, Crawford Bros. sold to James Tolson 100 ewes, Gabbard & Stone sold to Clay Crawford 77 sheep and drove 40 cattle to Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. Cora Horton, of Campton, is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Crawford.

Judge Strong who had a pretty severe attack of the grip is convalescing. Uncle Matt Bowman attended court at Mt. Sterling Monday.

V. Hurst

He has just woken up and is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Ollie Swango.

J. D. King made a business trip to Jackson the latter part of last week.

Typhoid fever is raging fiercely in this vicinity.

W. L. Kash was visiting friends at Peartree the first of the week. Miss Olya Wilson of Wilhurst visited friends at Lee city the past week.

Miss Eva King visited friends at Vancleve Sunday and reported a nice time.

Little Annie the infant of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Wilson died Monday of whooping cough. May we sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson in their trying hour as Jesus said suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for such is the Kingdom of God.

ROSEBUD

War Creek.

W. D. Barton and Garden Brewer, of War Creek has gone to Wisconsin.

Mr. Horner and his son June, Marian Brewer and Hurst Hampton of Hampton, paid Dr. Barton and Green Brewer a visit on a fishing spree Saturday and caught some fine fish and turtles. Dr. Barton went home with them and in their way they bought some fine water melons and had a spree right. Arthur Lawson and Malinda Maloney were married at the bride's father, J. G. Maloney's, of War Creek, Mr. Stamper officiating.

We have a good prospect of plenty of work starting up in this vicinity a job on Mill Creek and one on War Creek.

James Wadkins, of Mill Creek while hauling logs for Lawson he got caught with a log and hurt his leg very bad but is doing well. Politics is getting up in this Magisterial district again the Convention comes off next Saturday.

The Union Services will be held at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock Elder W. H. McClendon preaching the sermon. The public is cordially invited to be present.
